All May See

Dear Friends of the All May See Foundation,

It is my honor to present our Annual Report at the close of Fiscal Year 2025–2026. At All May See, we believe that philanthropy accelerates discovery and transforms possibility into advancements that have a profound effect on the lives of patients today and of generations to come. Your generosity made that belief tangible this year.

Highlights from the Year:

Investing in the Future: This past fiscal year, All May See granted more than $5.5 million in donor gifts to UCSF Ophthalmology and the Proctor Foundation, supporting innovative research, medical education, equipment, and patient care. We awarded $500,600 in peer-reviewed research funding to support promising investigations into macular degeneration, retinal disease, and other critical areas of vision science. We also provided $300,000 to the Chair of Ophthalmology to strengthen education and training at UCSF Ophthalmology, helping prepare tomorrow's clinician-scientists and leaders.

Patient Programs: Your support brings discoveries closer to patients. Programs such as ACCESS (Alleviating Costs for Critical Eye Specialty Services), which removes financial barriers to medically necessary eye treatments, and the UCSF Ophthalmology Shelter Clinic extend compassionate care to unhoused individuals who might go without it.

Innovation Fund: This year, we were proud to introduce the Innovation Fund, a new pathway for turning bold ideas in vision science into meaningful advances for patients. Through a structured, multi-phase process, the Fund provides faculty with early financial support, experienced mentorship, and connections to investors and industry partners. It is a powerful example of what philanthropy can make possible: giving promising discoveries the resources and guidance they need to move from the laboratory toward real-world clinical impact.

Alcatraz Swim Success: Our 2025 Swim for Sight exceeded goals as 50 swimmers raised nearly $200,000, bringing lifetime totals over $1.5 million that directly support UCSF Ophthalmology research. This year's swim was held on Sunday, October 4, 2026.

Behind every one of these accomplishments is a donor who chose to believe that a better future for vision is possible. Thank you for being one of those individuals. We can't accomplish this work without you.

With gratitude,

John F. de Benedetti
Chair, Board of Directors
All May See Foundation

In Gratitude for Generous Gifts

Thank you for generous gifts and new pledges for the UCSF Department of Ophthalmology and Francis I. Proctor Foundation made during fiscal year, July 1, 2025 to June 30, 2026. Gifts at every level make a huge difference.

Introducing the Innovation Fund: early support for the future of sight.

UCSF's vision scientists have no shortage of bold ideas. The Innovation Fund helps the most promising ones move forward, with early funding, mentorship from seasoned entrepreneurs, and connections to investors and industry partners. Every idea is vetted by UCSF experts, industry leaders and investors, so your gift goes where it can do the most for patients, bringing treatments that save and restore sight closer to reality.

From the President of All May See

Dear Friends of the All May See Foundation,

As we celebrate the 55th anniversary of the All May See Foundation, I am filled with gratitude for the generations of individuals who have believed in a simple yet profound idea: that together, we can help create a future where all may see.

This past year gave us much to celebrate.

UCSF Ophthalmology was again recognized among the Top 10 vision centers in the nation and as Best in Northern California in the 2026–27 U.S. News & World Report Best Hospitals Survey. This honor reflects the extraordinary dedication of the physicians, scientists, educators, trainees, and staff advancing vision care every day.

Behind these achievements are countless acts of generosity that make discovery possible, strengthen education and patient care, and help bring the promise of better vision to people here at home and around the world.

Ultimately, philanthropy is about people.

Researchers pursuing an unanswered question, a trainee discovering a passion for ophthalmology, physicians caring for a patient facing vision loss, or someone receiving care who might otherwise go without it.

That is the true meaning of philanthropy.

As we look toward the next chapter of All May See, I am confident that the generosity and spirit of possibility that have guided this Foundation for 55 years will continue to carry us forward. Thank you for being part of this remarkable community and for helping make real the promise that, one day, all may see.

With my warmest personal regards,
